“ I remember when we took him to Minnesota for his great grandmas 90th birthday. He loved to play in the snow. He dug tunnels and built a snow man. He loved to be outdoors and had a smile that would light up the world.

“ I had the pleasure of meeting Michael a couple of years ago when he started working at the same place as me. I watched him grow, make the right choices, and become a successful young man. We had many personal talks about life, and I saw him as a younger brother.

One of my favorite memories of him was riding on the tailgate of my truck as we we put out signs to prepare for a 5K race the next day. He had a big heart and loved volunteering with me.

Michael is no longer navigating the challenging path of life—he has gained his wings. There is no doubt he is with the Heavenly Father now. I will miss you, Mike. Thought and Prayers for his family 🙏
