“ Well we arrived in Devenger Place a new subdivision in Greer, S. C. all about the same time. Young, new families, Poor and ambitious. Sidona, Mike; Diane and Howard became friends. Soon our children were friends and even dated some. Then life happened. Mike worked night and day at The Dutch Pantry. Then Sidona got sick. All the children grew up and we were proud of all of them. Sidona, Mike, Howard kept being friends. Mike the jokester. Sidona the constant. Howard the counselor. A connection of the heart. Then the years took their toll and Mike is our first to go. We all have to go but we so wish he could have been there at the end for all of us to offer a quick, and delightful joke.! He would have a great joke about this. Something like, " Four folk loved each other and then the first to fink was a bald, cook who ended up sanding floors! " Never the one to forget love and happiness, that was Mike Daniels. Love, hugs, kisses, and memories to Sidona, Michael, Tom, and Susan. Vicki and Howard

“ So sorry when I saw of Mike's passing. I am thankful for the friendship I had with Mike in high school. Now and then I recall going with him every school day to his father's restaurant for lunch. Tried to get in touch with him over the years but couldn't locate him. I pray the piece of God on Sidonna their children and the rest of Mike's family .

“ I am so very sorry to hear of your Dad's passing, Michael. You, your family, and all who knew your Dad are in my prayers. I pray for strength to handle the details and journey ahead without your Dad. I pray for comfort and support from friends and family to weather this storm. I pray for peace that will someday find you, where the Memories of your Dad will bring smiles to your face and replace the ache in your heart with warmth. My sympathies and condolences, sweet friend... your friend, Sylvia Tabor

“ Mike will be truly missed, he was always a delight to share conversation. He loved his family dearly, cared deeply for his employees and worried about everyone's welfare, and was a great neighbor. May God Bless his soul.
