“ Hate we can't be at the service. Since hearing of Mike's passing, I have been reminiscing of him always being our self appointed "protector" especially when our girlfriends were with us. Can still hear him singing, "I don't care if I never find that pot of gold, 'cause I've got a darlin' to hold." A Lefty Frizzel tune, I believe. Praying for peace, contentment, and the joy of the Lord for the family. Alan and Gail Bright

Sandra he loved to come up there to hear you play and sing. I know he didn't come much this year but I think he was getting sick then. He certainly is going to be missed. My heart is broken but I know he is in Heaven singing with Mom and Brenda.
