“ Amanda,

I am so sorry to here that your Dad passed away. I remember rocking him in a cradle when he was a baby when Aunt Jeanette and Uncle Harold lived with us for a while in Woodruff. We would often visit Aunt Jeanette and us boys had a grand time playing and getting into all kinds of mischief. Sadly, I lost touch with Mike when I left Woodruff for college and a professional career in Arlington, VA. I last saw him at Aunt Leatha's funeral. My deepest condolences for your loss.

Amanda, as double first cousins, Mike, Hulon and I grew up together visiting each other's home and grand parents and all thru the years, playing kid games, climbing trees, swinging on vines, getting into mischief etc. I can hear Mike giggling and laughing at silly jokes he and Hulon would tell one after the other...and the fun and good memories are many. I am very sad he has left all of us but I am sure he is happy now joined together with our loved ones gone before.

*Amanda and Margaret,
I am so sorry to learn of Mike's passing. We all played together as kids in Greer and when we visited from North Carolina.*

*I know your memories will sustain you.
Take care
