“ Be with God old friend. Mike and I were at Clemson together where we shared the experience that is uniquely Clemson. We laughed a lot, studied together and had a lot of very serious conversations about life. I lost touch with him but thought of him so often. I truly wished I had not and had tried to find him so many times. I am truly so sorry to know of his passing and I send my condolences to his wife, family and friends. Prayers for God's healing touch.
