“ I’m very sad for your passing Mike and I miss you. As children we played for endless hours together pretending and getting into much mischief.
I know you loved your dear wife who preceded you in death and I’m sure that you will hold each other again in the spirit world. I’ve learned that love makes life so amazing and death so despairing. We are children of nature cast into this world to make of it what we can and if we are lucky enough find love we can hope for nothing more.
Rest in peace brother, I’ll look for you on the other side when my time comes.
Love you Rudy

“ I wish I would've spoken to you sooner. I will greatly miss our conversations and your sense of humor. You were tough on the outside but you had a huge heart. You loved your wife indescribably and you were an awesome friend. I love you and you will be missed.
