“ Uncle Mike, I love you. You helped me and my wife get our furniture when we got married. I have always looked up to you and remember sitting in front of the TV at my dad's house and you kept pinching my ear and aggravating me. What I wouldn't do to go back to that time and just give you a hug and tell you i love you once more time

“ I worked for Mike at Kimbrells in Greenville for a few years. He was always kind of a hard nose but underneath it all he had a heart of gold. My grandmother died in 2006 and he gave me the week off to help my family with no questions asked. Didn't even take from my vacation. He was always willing to teach you and cheered you on when you moved up. I was promoted and got my own store, Mike was always available to answer questions and give encouragement.
