“ Katrina,
I am very sorry for your lost. Although I have not had the opportunity to meet Mike, knowing you and having the privilege to work with you professionally, Mike no doubt was an amazing husband and human being who will truly be missed. Remember, he took his love for you with him. Love is eternal.
May God bless your heart.

“ Katrina,
My heart is saddened because the world has lost a wonderful ,warm, loving and beautiful human being. I have lost a wonderful friend. I don't think there could ever be on this earth anyone who met Mike and didn't instantly like him. I worked with Mike here at the Hebron facility and missed him terribly when he left and now I am sure he will be terribly missed by all those who knew and loved him. My heartfelt prayers are with you and your family. Thank you Mike for all the memories you created and have left behind. With Love,
