“ Please accept our deepest condolences. Your entire family has always been so very good to us as newcomers to the Cherry Lane/Fairhaven neighborhood so many years ago and we absolutely adore you all. We will forever remember Sunday baseball in the back yard and homemade ice cream. We lift you up to our Heavenly Father in prayer asking for comfort and strength at this very difficult time. “ Becky, Ruth, Greg, Brandy, Jeff and families and friends of The Sweet Family: I have no magic words to make the pain go away, nor do I have the answer to why? All I have is my faith in God to know that Mike is with his Heavenly Father now and is with JC his earthly daddy. Mike Sweet was a good man, I never heard a negative comment or word about him and our families have known each other's for all of Mikes, Greg's, Allison's and mine. We grew up together in the church but developed a intimate friendship with the church families and knew we could count on each other. Allison and I had the pleasure of having Becky as our babysitter when she and Mike we're dating and we fell in love with her too and became part of the family too. We watched The Sweet and Ashmore families grow with children, grandchildren and great grands. Families and relationships like this don't come along all the time, make sure the people you treasure in your life, tell them. Make sure they know it every day. Make sure they know you love them and are glad to be a part of their life. As fir Mike Sweet, I have no doubt that he is with his Lord and Savior. He was a committed Christian, husband, father, son, brother, brother-in-law, grandfather, uncle, father-in-law, cousin, servant, friend, coworker or whatever Mike was to you, he was devoted and will surely be missed. May you feel Gods grace, mercy and love during this most difficult time.
