“ I met Mike listening to blues in downtown Greer. He was a perfect gentleman with the best smile anyone could wear. Praying for the family and sending my sincerest sympathy.

“ I am sorry to hear about Mikes passing. He was always cheerful, quick to share a laugh and a smile, most of the time. May you feel Gods healing touch during this time and be comforted.

Respectfully,

“ Cousin Mike was someone I saw almost every summer growing up. Our family would go to Greer and spend summer vacation there. His Dad and my Dad are brothers and we live in Florida but I always looked forward to those trips to spend time with my SC cousins. My heart goes out to his family and his Florida relatives are sending prayers of comfort to his children, grand kids and sisters.
