“ I meet Mildred and Kenneth when they came to South Dakota where we were stationed with my sister and her husband, Jean & Marion Smith. They both came in there motor homes. We had a great time. I went to visit her a few years ago and took her some photo's I had taken when they were there. She was a kind and sweet lady. My prayers are with the family.##imported-begin##Sheryl Walters##imported-end##

“ My thoughts and prayers are with your entire family at this time. Mildred was a wonderful Christian lady whose joy and spirit will always remain in my memory - she was my friend and always treated me with kindness and love. God bless you all in the coming days, and may you find comfort in knowing that she is "at home" and is rejoicing in the light and glory of Heaven.##imported-begin##Jeff Wellmon##imported-end##
