January 10, 1926 - May 4, 2007

Heading: Mildred H. Glass

Dateline: Greenville

Mildred Haynes Glass, a resident of Scott Towers, passed away on Friday morning at her home.

Mildred was born in Monticello, MS, and was an active member and supporter of the various ministries of Redemption World Outreach Center. Mildred's passion was helping anyone in a time of need. She regularly prepared meals for the homeless people in the Greenville area, the Greenville Women's Shelter and fellow residents of Scott Towers who were unable to prepare their own meals. For many years, she has prepared shoes boxes each year and handmade dolls to be distributed by Samaritan's Purse at Christmas time. Mildred was recognized for this in 1995 receiving the Jefferson Award for her work. In 1996, she was one of ten recipients in the U.S. recognized by Publishers Clearing House "Good As Gold" award.

The Celebration of Life service for Mildred will be held at 11a.m. Saturday, May 19, 2007 at Redemption World Outreach Center.

In death, Mildred again unselfishly thought of others and donated her body for medical research.

In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made in Mildred's honor to the Mildred Glass Memorial Fund, P.O. Box 534, Greer, SC, 29652.

Online condolences may be made at www.thewoodmortuary.com.
