“ Miss Millie, I miss you so much. Every time I walk by your room, I look for you but you're not there. I will see you again, though, Sweetie. Thank you for the great memories.

“ I used to love polishing Aunt Millie's nail at the nursing home. She loved that red, and when we were done and someone commented on her nails, she would say..."Thank you, I just did them and didn't I do a good job". That saying of hers and that smile will be a memory I carry of her for along time. My sympathies to you all.

“ I had not heard from Millie in years as I moved from Greer to Summerville in 1963. I worked with Millie at Victor and we shared a special love - Connie Maxwell. My husband and his 2 sisters were there. Receiving this info about her death brought a very special picture to my mind. She croched a mint green baby sacque and cap and brought to my house when my son was born, Dec. 1953. I also remember the car she drove and we would go to lunch with the group. She spoke often of her sister and her family. I was grateful she found the partner God had planned for her. A very loving person.

“ To the Pitts family, please accept my deepest condolences. With prayer I hope that as you cope with your loss that the God of Comfort strengthens the family with his promise that we will soon see our dead loved ones again. “But go on now to the end of your life and your rest; for you will rise again and have your full share...”

“ Millie was a very "Special Grandmother" to me. We adopted each other early in our friendship when we decided she didn't have a granddaughter and I didn't have a grandmother. Every time we were together, someone would ask if she was my grandmother. We would grin at each other, and tell them "yes". I spent much time with her laughing and listening to her many stories. She was a very special lady and is surely most happy now that she is reunited with her beloved sister, Mrs. Maude. I wouldn't trade all the time in the world for being able to spend time with her in her final hours talking to her and loving her. Millie, I will forever miss and love you.
