“ So sorry to hear of this loss.. As a young girl of 9 nine years old, I was in love with Grady!! My Aunt Grace's brother!! He made me feel special and always took time to tease or to help me ride old Nellie, the horse. The years have passed without any contact, but I will always remember the gentle sweet time of a young girls puppy love of an older young man. My thoughts and prayers go up for all of you . May God send you peac, comfort and stength as you go through this storm. Janice Bazemore

“ You are PaPa to the kids and the love of my mom's life. Grady, you will never know the grief we are going through by losing you. You kept us together when we wanted to fall apart. Thank you for taking on my kids as your own. Jade and Chase love you so much. I will never forget you introducing me to everyone as your daughter. You took on way more than you ever had to. Thank you for loving us as much as you did. We will always love you. Until we meet again...I know you will raise hell on those streets in heaven.
