“ Sara & Deborah- How sad our hearts are that Miles has passed on to his final resting place. I know you all have been together so many years, and I can't imagine being without my own mate of 54 years, so I know how difficult it must be for you. Please remember that God does not make mistakes, and this is in his plan for the two of you. We shall always remember Miles as the very kind and Christain man that we have known for so many years. May God Bless.##imported-begin##Harold Mullinax and Norma##imported-end##

“ My deepest condolences to the family. Miles was a fellow Mason and friend.
He is now gone to that Celestial Lodge, not made by hands but by the Great Architect of the Universe. He will be sorely missed by his family, his church family and his Masonic Brethern.

Rest in peace!!##imported-begin##Steve Whitaker##imported-end##

“ Deborah and Mrs. Compton;
I am holding you both close to my heart during this time. No words can provide the comfort you need, but your family and friends can help to ease the pain and sorrow.
Be kind to yourselves right now, eat - sleep - and remember the good times!
Love to you both, Kathleen##imported-begin##Kathleen, Michael, Laura and Ryan Balogh##imported-end##

“ Dear Ms. Compton,
I first knew Miles from the Smith-Compton JD dealership where I bought my first JD tractor in 1985 or 1986. I later enjoyed his very knowledgeable parts service at the current JD dealership. I will always remember him as an outgoing, friendly and helpful person, and without him telling me, I could tell he was also a faithful Christian. We will all miss him but rest assured he is now in a better place.

God bless you and keep you,

“ My dear Deborah. I am sad for you. You must be hurting in your heart and there is something - someone - missing.

But you have been marvelous throughout these weeks. We now have two of our beloved 1st Friday sisters grieving for a parent.

My thoughts are with you and your mother. I will light a candle for you and your dad. I wish I'd known him.

Lovingly, Tracey

1st Friday at my house is just around the corner and we will envelope you in our caring.##imported-begin##Tracey Turner##imported-end##
