“ Sorry to hear of Mr Griffins passing. Growing up with his son, there are many fond memories with Mike and his father. One in particular, Mr Griffin took Mike and I to their cabin deep in the mountains and upon arrival we discovered a bear had broke in to the home. Mr Griffin gave Mike and I each a shotgun and said “go get that bear”. Two young men totally clueless and scared, Mr Griffin gave us words of encouragement and sent us into the woods. The next day, Mr. Griffin sent us back into the woods to catch dinner, Mike and I caught a nice mess of Brook trout and Mr. Griffin cooked the best fish and potatoes over a open fire I’ve ever had. God places many people in our lives for reasons, thank you Mr. Griffin for the many life experiences. God bless you Mr. Griffin, may you Rest In Peace.
