“ Mona I will miss you so very much! You have always been that extra Sister in my family my entire life. Thank you for our many laughs, much needed advice on days I would see you in the neighborhood, the never ending Mona smiles, and always the big hugs with a “see ya later kiddo”. See you again someday very soon on those Golden Streets! ❤️

“ To My Sister's, Brother's, Niece's and Nephew's,

I'm so sorry you have lost your Mom, just remember she is no longer suffering and is now in Dad's arms again.

I know we have never been close but I'm here for each one of you if you need to talk. (John, Traci and Jennifer have my number - call or tex) Sorry I was not able to make it to stand beside each of you today, to hug each of you and tell you to remember the good times. Memories are precious and should be cherished each day, you never know when it will be your last.

Ken,

I'm sorry we never got to meet, Mona always had good words to say about you whenever we were able to talk. I hope you know in your heart Mona loves you and she isn't suffering anymore. She is with God.

Love you All

“ Dear Ken and family,
We love you and Mona and enjoyed our fun times together. She's a sweetie and she loved my family like her own and enjoyed playing with my grandbabies. We will miss her so much but get great comfort knowing that she is in Heaven and not suffering any more.
With much love,

“ I love you Mona. You were like a sister. You and I shared some outrageous adventures after Rainbows and throughout life. We weren't always close by location but always by the heart. You always will be a most special person. John, Traci, April, & Bubba - your Mom loved you all soo very much. I hope you know and appreciate just how special she was. Mr Ken, I'm sorry I did not get to meet you in person. Mona told me so much about you and she loved you so much too. You gave her a new lease on life when the two of you met and fell in love. Thank you for loving her so well. It is always heartbreaking to lose a loved one but just remember, she has earned a special place with the Lord. She will have no more pain or sadness or want and I believe one day we shall all see each other again. She will always be in our hearts.

*Love and Strength to you all.
