“ When I think of heaven I think of all the fun things and the beauty that will be there. So when I heard Morris had passed on my immediate thought was I could see him and Daddy out in the green fields running those rabbit dogs. You all are in my thoughts and prayers! “ Our heartfelt condolences go out to Judy and the boys and the family. Even though we might not have known Morris for a very long time, we felt like we did. He was a Very special person and we will miss him tremendously. He always had a story to tell, a kind word to say, and there was never a dull moment with Morris! Our prayers are with all of you...##imported-begin##Rob and Sherry Dull##imported-end##

“ Judy, we are so sorry for your loss. Morris was truly one of God's wonderful angels here on earth and is in a wonderful place. I have been praying for him during his time of hospitalization and will now pray for you. I always enjoyed talking to Morris and will always remember him for his generosity and what a wonderful neighbor he was and a good friend. We have wonderful memories of his faithful yard work and his taking Matthew and Rachel riding on hi 4-wheeler and golf cart. I believe God calls the best home early because he wants them closer to Him.

Love,
Susan###imported-begin##Susan Brown Jones###imported-end##

“ From the first time I met you Morris, never was there a time without a smile and a thought already in your mind of how lucky I am to know him. A Renegade Wrangler with a vision to fight a good fight and leave a wonderful path for those who choose to follow your trail. Only higher mountains await you now my friend and you are surely up for the journey. I will miss you most with your uplifting hugs and easy smile. I pray for peace and understanding for the family. He never talked to me without talking of his family that he loved so dearly. We will be listening for the hoofbeats of your horse as you gallop across heaven.

Our deepest condolences to Judy, Eddie, David and Andi. May God Bless You during this time of sorrow. Remember that God opens His heart and opens His arms. You are not alone He is with you and so are we.
