“ I will never forget you Uncle Mose. I remember coming in yours and Aunt Mary Kate's little store on Sandy Flat. Wow, that was a long time ago. I remember being fascinated watching you pull cars over that "hole" in your garage to work on cars. I think what I remember the most about your garage is that coke machine where the bottles lay on their sides and you had to grab the cap end of the bottle and pull out. I don't know why that fascinated me as a small kid. You were the first person I ever saw bale hay. That was amazing watching the machine pop out those squares. Most of all I remember your smile and your laugh and your love of family. You will surely be missed.

Aunt Mary Kate, Ronnie, Donnie, and family - my prayers are with you.

Love,
