“ Arlene (Mema) was a very special lady. I am grateful that I can say that I have many good memories of having the privilege on many occasions to spend time with her, sharing our stories of our pets and all animals. She was easy to talk to, quiet in her own way, never one to be rushed, taking her time, that was her way, making her unique to me. This and her love of animals is what I will remember her for. All my thoughts and prayers to all her family and my special friends to Donna and David Gilliam.
