

Nancy Childress

July 9, 1942 - December 29, 2017

Nancy Clark Childress, 75, passed away December 29, 2017.

A native of Hartsville, daughter of the late Houston and Frances Rodam Clark, she was a retired employee of Greenville High School and of the Baptist faith. Surviving are her husband, James Childress of the home; a son, Benjamin Wade Childress of Travelers Rest; a daughter, Robin Underwood of Reidville; a brother, Virgil Clark of Salt Lake City, Utah; a sister, Polly Bouch of Chattanooga, Tennessee; and three grandchildren.

Online condolences may be made at www.thewoodmortuary.com

Tribute Wall

DH

“ James and family, we are saddened to hear of Nancy’s passing. She was so upbeat and happy when we visited you last. It is hard to believe she is gone. Love and Hugs. Waymond and Desiree Huff

desiree huff - December 31, 2017 at 01:33 PM

LP

“ Dear Jim and Family,
We will miss Nancy's sweet and kind spirit in our quilting guild. We were quite a team as "Hospitality Hostesses" at our quilt shows serving those wonderful barbecue meals. May you be comforted by the good memories of your lives together and the knowledge that the Lord has welcomed her home to be with Him, free of pain and illness.

*In His love,
Lynn Parker*

Lynn Parker - December 31, 2017 at 12:39 PM

NW

“ We were so sorry to hear about Nancy’s passing. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. Tom and Nancy Weyand. 126 Belvue Rd.

Nancy Weyand - December 31, 2017 at 10:07 AM

LH

“ My condolences to the family and loved ones. Mrs. Childress was so kind and helpful with me when I taught at Greenville High; I have fond memories of her.

So sorry for your loss.

Linda Hill

LH - December 30, 2017 at 07:59 PM