“ Michael, Josh, and Lesley,

We are deeply and truly sorry for your loss, she was a great lady. There are so many memories and stories that my mom shared when they worked together all those years, she was more than a friend to my mom she was family. I'm not good with words so I'll leave you with a poem my mom wrote a couple years ago, it says it all.

*My yesterday fell today,
Untouched my world remains,
The heart that was once strong,
Is broken and filled with pain,*

*My yesterday fell today,
With it went my dreams,
Gone are the promises,
Replaced with a void, it seems,*

*My yesterday fell today,
My wishes were put aside,
My today lost it's battle,
As my heart it broke inside,*

*My yesterday fell today,
Slowly drifting out of sight,
Fighting to keep it with me,
I lost my heart on that night,*

*My yesterday fell today,
I forgot tomorrow will come,
A new beginning for me,
To beat a different drum.

“ Where to begin. She was more than a friend to me. She was a teacher to me and my children. She comforted me when my mother passed away in 1991. We share lots of laughs. Too many to mention. 30 wonderful years of friendship. The kind you dream about. I will truly miss you in my life, my friend. Rest in peace.
