“ Our sympathy and sincere feelings are with Charlie, David and the whole family at this time. Nancy was a true joy to have know. All the way back to her helping to drive the boys to basketball practice and participation at the games, to her presence at Our Savior services and activities, she will always be in our lives. To Charlie, we also say that our thoughts and prayers are with you during this time. You have been a real partner in this relationship and true example for all of us. We know Nancy was well taken care of.

Sincerely,
