“ Sharon, Roy, Matt, Jessica and Matthew my heart breaks for all of you. Nathan was a very special young man that I loved. I know he loved his family and friends. He is now free of all the demons that tried their best to conquer him but they failed. Praise God he is in Heaven, has seen the beautiful face of Jesus and walking those streets of gold. I pray he and Matt are rejoicing together for escaping the devil knowing they are free, healthy, happy and have nothing to fear ever again. Please take the wonderful memories all of you have, tuck them safely in that huge hole in your heart and pull them out when you need a smile. Know that the tears we shed are tears of love and let them flow when you need them. I love all of you and I know we will see our boys again. Mertie
