“ She was the embodiment of class and grace. I loved her so deeply. She was a wonderful human who loved everyone. She was deeply loved by my late mother, Emma Elizabeth Taylor. During my Mother’s darkest days, she was there, feeding my Mother her favorite cake, which was the last thing she ever ate. That will never be forgotten and is cherished in the hearts of Hank Taylor and I forever.

She was funny! She made me laugh when I didn’t think I could laugh. She loved books and we talked about our favorites. She was a light for me. I will always love her so deeply.

With all my love,

Mrs Christy Dalton
