“ I wanted to let Myrtle and Marvin know that I was sorry to hear about your mothers death. Harvey always spoke kindly of her, and I also know that both of you always took good care of her when she needed you the most.
You are both in my thoughts.

“ Debbie,

My deepest sympathy goes out to you and all of the Mc Coy family in the loss of your grandmother. I was a classmate of yours at Taylors School. Your grandmother lived around the corner from us. Although my family moved to Charlotte in 1964, I still have fond memories of living in Taylors.##imported-begin##Brant Hart##imported-end##
