Earle, I am presently vacationing with family in Florida and working on Part II of Nicky's Biography " God's Hand on a Marriage" which Nicky and I were working on when he passed into Glory. I just read for the first time your kind condolence. Thank you. I pray your life has been full and the the Lord has become more and more dear to your heart. God continues to bless the Ministry He called us to begin. Our third daughter Sheryn Nicole married Mel Stratton's grandson and they are doing a marvelous job! We would like to have you visit to see one of our productions at our Logos Theatre in Taylors if you are ever in the Greenville area. How are you and your family? Thanks again for your thoughtfulness. By His Grace- Sheri

“ Sorry to hear about the death of Dr. Chavers. Although I never met him, I have heard about his ministry. I am so thankful that he was able to repurpose the Taylors School auditorium for The Academy of Arts. During my days at Taylors School (1957-64), I stood on that stage for school plays in 1959 and 1960. My deepest sympathy goes out to the Chavers family.

“ To Nicky's family:
Our love and sympathy for your loss. We have a memory of our 48 yr. old son being cast as Joseph's young son when he was a pre-schooler in Rockford, IL. So good to know Nicky and Sheri as friends here in Greenville and to enjoy their love for ministry through the Academy of Arts, musical writing and performances, and love for our Savior and friend, the Lord Jesus Christ. We know Nicky is singing on those streets of gold.
