“ Dear Family, It seems we only knew Clark for a relatively short period of our lives. But right from the start we felt a closeness. He was our first cousin but we didn't grow up knowing this part of our family. But when we met him we had the feeling of what a sweet man he was. He was kind, funny, polite, very loving. He spoke lovingly of Eunelle and his family. He was a true gentleman. I do believe God touched our lives and allowed us to be together one more time for a family vacation in the Smoky Mountains. We grieve for his family for their loss, but we celebrate the man he was and feel he is now in Heaven with our Lord. Melvena and Ted, Wayne and Sally, Gerald and Brenda, and Phyllis Smith.
