“ Most of my fun memories were as kids, swimming in the pool that Big Daddy built in their back yard. All the children (Jere, Sandra, Lola/Mom, Carolyn) and their kids would be at Big momma and Big daddy's house every day! We all played together and had a great time. It was a simpler time of no locked doors, knowing your neighbors, and respect for others. Pam was always kind to me and I to her. We acted crazy and had crazy words and gestures that we only understood. We played cards at Jere's house on the weekends. Her late husband Herman and I worked together and fished and hunted as well. Pam was soft spoken and to my knowledge had a love for GOD. We spoke about these things when we were together, I wish now those times were more often. Pam will be missed and loved for ever, but always be remembered in my heart. I am sad but also happy at the same time and wonder what a beautiful reunion in heaven it must be for her. And to see the face of God!
