

Pamela Compton Lassiter

February 10, 1968 - April 2, 2015

Pamela Compton Lassiter, of Lyman, SC, died at Spartanburg Regional Hospital, surrounded by her family and friends on April 2, 2015. She was 47 years old.

Pam is survived by her father Burrell Compton and stepmother Linda Compton both of Rockingham, NC, and preceded in death by her mother Patricia Troioli of Shreveport, LA. She is also survived by her husband John Lassiter, her son John Lassiter Jr, and her daughter Haley Lassiter, all of Lyman, SC, and her sister Nicole Compton of Rockingham, NC.

Pam was born on February 10, 1968 in Austin, TX and grew up in Rockingham, NC. She married John Lassiter in 1996 in Cape Hatteras, NC and they lived in the Carolinas where they were raising their children, John and Haley. Pam made many close friends as a dental assistant at Greenville Family Dentistry in Greer, SC. Pam was also very involved with her daughter's cheering at Rockstar Cheer in Greer, where she was a rocking Team Mom. Pam passed away after a courageous battle with ovarian cancer. She fought like a "Rockstar" and never gave up. Pam will be remembered as a person who lived life to its fullest. She was thankful for every second that she had and loved her family and friends with a fierceness that was amazing.

Visitation will be held 6:00 p.m. until 8:00 p.m. Monday at the Wood Mortuary. Funeral services will be held at 4:00 p.m. Tuesday at the Wood Mortuary Chapel, conducted by Rev. Michael Joe Harvell.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made, in Pam's name, to the Gibbs

Cancer Center.

“ Please accept my most sincere condolences. The Compton's and my family , Jenny, Emily and Sheree,were neighbors for quite a while in an apartment in Cordova. Although there was a 14 year age difference we became best friends, BEST FRIENDS ! We shared giggles, tears, and secrets. She will forever be in the hearts, minds and souls of everyone who ever knew her.

“ I has the pleasure of meeting Pam over 15 years ago when our husbands worked together in North Carolina. It seems when you get older in life it is much harder to make friends but I was instant friends with Pam and have adored her ever since. We did not get to spend as much time together over the past years but every time I did see her it was like no time has passed that is just who Pam was. I am honored to have called her my friend and I will miss that beautiful smile and just loving way about her. It is comforting to know that we all have an angel watching over us and she is cancer free. My thoughts and prayers are with all of Pam's family and friends. I love you friend and will miss you always but love the memories we made.

“ The first time I met Pam was shortly after we moved into our new home in Lyman, she was such a blessing to meet with her sweet spirit. I have learned to love John, Johnnie and Haley because they are wonderful neighbors. Pam will be missed by many, but I know that I will see her again in Heaven some day. Just thin, she was with the Risen Savior yesterday on Easter. Psalm 116:15 " Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints. WE will miss you Precious Pam.

WE are praying for you John, Johnnie and Haley and family
