“ Wel Perk another year has past and I miss you more today than the day you went home. There are so many things I wish I could talk to you about. You were the only one I could talk to about what was on my mind. You was always there to listen and help me through. I know you are happy now and you are not in pain and I would not want to take that away from you its just that I miss you so much I love you your baby sister###imported-begin###Penny Grant###imported-end##
