“ Patsy will be missed! I'll always remember how she pitched for the Duncan First Softball team and all the fun we had. She was always smiling and cheerful and made the umpires laugh! She took alot of hits in the shins but kept on playing, smiling and laughing. I'll never forget her and softball games will never be the same! She's with our LORD and SAVIOR now! HALLELUJER! We love you, "Mimi"! Janet Rogers##imported-begin##Janet Rogers##imported-end##

“ To Ms. Patsy's Family:
It is never easy letting go to a dearly beloved family member. Death is an enemy to all of us and you can be comforted from what the Holy Bible says at Isaiah 25:8a, "HE will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces." My sincere sympathy goes out to your family for you lost.

“ As a relatively new member of Duncan First I do not know everyone in the church... however, I knew Patsy. I am a soprano and she is an alto in the DFBC choir, but she always spoke to me eventhough we were on opposite sides of our large choir. And she always had a smile on her face. That smile was very evident tonight at Wood's as her most natural facial expression. She was genuine. And she will be missed.

I also have Nicole in my Biology class at Byrnes. Although I have known her such a brief time her heart shines through and she has that same spirit that Patsy had... always smiling!!!

Your family will remain in my prayers. Please know that Patsy will be missed and that Nicole will be loved on at BHS.##imported-begin##Rhonda Demumbreum##imported-end##
