“ Pat will be surely missed. I remember the first time she saw my oldest son...She took his first "naked" picture. My mother-in-law, Dee Martin was her best friend, and I know it tore Dee up. She called to let me and Ken know that she had passed away. Watch over mama now Pat, please.
Jack, we love you.

Sincerely,

“ Oh, Jack.....

No words, man.

When Ma died, and the agony of reality was tearing me apart, you were such a comfort to me. You never let me forget how very much God loves us ALL, and that His arms are always around me, especially in the darkest hours.... constantly reminding me that He will never leave me or forsake me.

You have been a rock of a friend for me, over the years; ever objective, and funny, but never judgemental. You have given me hope, when there was none. A precious healing fountain of patience, strength, Christian guidance, forgiveness, and lovingkindness is the gift and legacy that your mother leaves behind, in you.

I am so grateful to our Lord for blessing our lives with her. Please know, Jack and family, that now, and always, you are in my prayer.

"Here's my shoulder you can lean on me."

Your Friend,
