

Patricia S. Durkovich Miller

August 2, 1942 - March 23, 2026

Patricia Ann Seminksi-Durkovich Miller, lovingly known as Patty or Patsy, was born on August 2, 1942, in Johnstown, Pennsylvania. She passed away peacefully on March 23, 2026, leaving behind a legacy of love, generosity, and devotion to her family.

Patty was a woman whose heart knew no limits. She was truly a giver, always putting others before herself and offering kindness, support, and love to anyone in need. Her selflessness touched countless lives, and her warmth will be remembered by all who had the blessing of knowing her.

She is survived by her four children, Kathy Boasi (Robert) of Greer, Lisa Sims (Joe) of Hixson, Texas, Frank C. Miller (Jennifer) of Elgin, and Teresa Baker (Chris) Greer; sixteen grandchildren, John Wojack (Laura), Karen M. Boasi, Brandon Hollifield, Kandice Hollifield, Makenzie Sims, Mason Sims, Brandi Frank (Logan), Frank Miller (Mercedes), Robert Miller (Kelly), Charlotte Ruppe (Brandon), Nicholas Miller, Katie M. Decareau (Stephen), Hunter McCoy (Zane), Olivia McCoy, and Maranda Baker; and many, many great-grandchildren, each of whom carries a piece of her spirit and love forward; a brother, Stevie Durkovich; and a sister, Joyce "Cookie" Laverty (Michael). Her family was her greatest pride and joy, and she poured her life into nurturing and supporting them.

Patty was welcomed into heaven by her beloved husband, Frank Clyde Miller, her dear daughter, Cynthia "Cindy" Marie Miller, and grandson, Frank C. Wojack. We find comfort in knowing they are reunited once again.

Funeral services will be held 11:00 a.m. Friday, March 27, 2026, at Blessed Trinity Catholic Church conducted by Father Gabriel Cruz. Burial will follow in Wood Memorial Park.

Visitation will be held 4:00-6:00 p.m. Thursday, March 26, 2026, at The Wood Mortuary.

Though our hearts are heavy with loss, we are forever grateful for the time we shared with her. Patty's legacy of love, generosity, and compassion will continue to live on through her family and all who were fortunate enough to know her. She will be deeply missed and forever cherished.

The family will be at the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Teresa and Chris Baker.

In lieu of flowers, the family is asking for donations to be made to St. Vincent de Paul Society at 3710 Augusta Road Greenville, South Carolina 29605, in Memory of Patricia S. Miller.

“ A tribute for my mother by Teresa M. Baker

How do you say goodbye to your mother and first best friend in life? I'm numb and heartbroken and know the days ahead are going to be the hardest days of my life. My mother was truly one of a kind. She loved our Lord deeply and instilled that same deep love for him and our faith in all of us. She was a giving, loving, caring and humble servant. She taught me what love really meant. I tell everyone that I'm the woman I am today because of her. To know her was to love her. She gave everyone all that she had. She used to serve several ministries when we were younger and taught us how to love others as Christ loves us and to give back. She would give the shirt off of her back to a stranger if they needed it. She was feisty and funny too. I guess that's who I got it from. lol. Sunday morning's call was an unexpected shock. A whirlwind of emotions, memories shared with laughter as we sat around her dying in bed. Her condition turned quick fast. But God did answer our prayers to keep her from suffering. I've been praying for months for God to heal her and make her whole. Even if that meant losing her from this earth. That's how much I love her. Enough to let her go as painful as it is. I can't fathom my life without her. As a Christian I know I will see her again. And knowing she's now in the arms of our Lord and reunited with daddy and Cindy, that brings me joy, hope and will help get me thru. My heart is broken. I now have to learn to live life without her on this Earth. I told her all the time, "I love you." And she smiled and said "I know you do!" And that she loved me too. She was holding on yesterday and we kept telling her that it was ok. Go to Jesus we said over and over and be with daddy and Cindy too. She took her last breath and her last heart beat as I sung to her a few of her favorite Catholic hymns. Please pray for our family for the days and months ahead. She'll always live in my heart. Mom I love you till the end of time and until we reunite again. Thank you for giving me the gift of life and the love that'll last for eternity. I will miss you so. Your baby daughter.

“ I was so sorry to hear of Patty's passing. She was an extra special person to me. Almost like a big sister. She lived with us a few years back in the late 60's,. She met Frank around that time. They eventually married and moved off to South Carolina. Contacts were few, but we stayed in touch. I always enjoyed our getting together at family reunions to discuss current events and old times. God bless you Patty and when you surely get to heaven, hug Frank, Cindy and "Aunt Mary" for me, along with all the other relatives, too many to mention here. God speed.

“ Dear family,
Please know that we are keeping you and Patty in our prayers. Patty is one of the most loving and caring persons we have ever known. We can all learn from Patty's wonderful example of sharing her love with others.
