

Patricia "Pat" Ann Leonard

July 12, 1952 - March 21, 2022

Patricia "Pat" Ann Littlejohn Leonard, 69, wife of the late Gerald "Jerry" Leonard, passed away March 21, 2022.

A native of Spartanburg, daughter of the late Herbert T. Littlejohn, Jr. and Mary Elizabeth O'dell Littlejohn, she was a homemaker and member of Lyman United Methodist Church, where she was active in UMW groups and the Prime-Time Senior Lunch Bunch. She belonged to the Opal Hammock Monday Bridge Club and The Azalea Garden Club of Greer. Pat was a graduate of Winthrop University and utilized her degree in Sociology to work as a social worker with the Spartanburg County Department of Social Services.

Pat was an avid reader and enjoyed mysteries most of all. She loved her dog, Hobbs, and they took many morning walks together. She was close to her Lyman Lake neighbors, especially, Mina and Joyce.

Pat's passion was flowers. She loved to work in her yard growing many different kinds of flowers. She definitely had a green thumb! Her heart and soul will forever be in her gardens.

She is survived by one stepdaughter, Allyson J. Leonard of Minneapolis, MN; two brothers, David Gordon Littlejohn (Michelle) of Greenville, SC and Herbert Thomas Littlejohn III of Falls Church, VA; one sister, Mary Jane Littlejohn Caruso (Anthony) of York, SC; and step-grandson, Jason Charles Leonard. She is also survived by her dear friends, who were her extended family, Brenda and Jimmy McAbee and her special "niece and nephew", Megan Bennett and Jonah Burrell. Pat had many friends who will miss her. She had a kind word and a happy laugh for everyone.

Funeral services will be 1:00 p.m. Friday, March 25, 2022, at Lyman United Methodist Church, conducted by Rev. Walter Cantwell and Dr. Mitch Kyllenon. Burial will be private.

Visitation will be held 5:00 until 7:00 p.m. Thursday, March 24, 2022, at The Wood Mortuary.

The family is at their respective homes.

Honorary Escort will be the Opal Hammock Monday Bridge Club and the Azalea Garden Club of Greer.

Memorials may be made to Lyman United Methodist Church, Prime-Time Senior Group Lunch Bunch, 106 Groce Road, Lyman, SC 29365.

Online condolences may be made at www.thewoodmortuary.com.

“ Sincere Condolences To all of Pat's Family, I met Pat at a company we worked at many, many, many years ago in New Canaan, Connecticut. Pat was one of the warmest caring persons I was privilege to be able to call my dear friend. Pat & Jerry's wedding was special memory. I was able to visit with her and Jerry when they lived in El Paso, Texas. We kept in touch and Pat & Jerry made a special trip to come to Connecticut for my wedding to Lynn. Even after they moved to Lyman we kept in touch. She always called me from my birthday, even though we might have talked just a day or two before and definitely talked about the flowers and her garden. I will miss our calls but Pat will always be in my thoughts.

“ My deepest sympathy to the family of Pat Leonard. Pat and I grew up together at First Baptist Church in Spartanburg. We finished Spartanburg High School the same year. She was a fine person and good friend.

“ *Pat was a lovely, caring friend. She was a member of our birthday group from Apalache Baptist church. There were seven of us who met and shared a meal together at a local restaurant
Of the one's choosing, that we were celebrating.
The last time I saw Pat was at my 88th birthday.
She looked so beautiful and always had a smile!
I will miss my beautiful Pat, but I will see her
In Heaven! Oh Happy Day!*

*Pat was born just 6 months after me and so became my childhood cousin-friend. She visited our family when we lived in Virginia. I remember playing ping pong in the basement of her childhood home in Spartanburg! What fun with the Littlejohns!
It's true! She always wore a smile though she certainly endured her share of suffering. I am sad she has left this Earth but look forward to seeing her again. In the new heavens and earth.*
