“ We had more good times with Pat and Don than any other couple we've every known. For over forty-years they were friends and traveling companions. A lot of great memories from New York to Atlanta.

May our Lord bless Pat's precious soul, and we know He will. And may He comfort Don with His grace and mercy, and we know He will.

“ *Kathy and I pray for the Lord's peace and comfort over your family during this difficult time. The love of Jesus was obvious in Pat's life. She deeply loved her family with an unconditional love and proved it many times. Her heart to see her family love her Lord and serve Him was paramount in her life. Heaven has received another lover of Christ. Her separation is only temporary to those who know Jesus as Savior and Lord. You will see her again!!!!
