“ I remember when my Aunt Pat visited my family in the late sixties. She helped me understand that perspective is regional and there is no simple right or wrong. I wish I could have known her better and my heart goes out to her family in their grief of her loss! Peace be with you Aunt Pat!###imported-begin##Laura Valenziano###imported-end##

“ Mitch and Donna and Family, I am truly sorry about your Mom. As you may remember - I worked right with her for several years. Your loss is great but even greater since you have now lost both your parents.
I am sorry I will not be able to attend but I have (Navy) friends up from Charleston. My thoughts and prayers are with you not only now but in the future. May God bless and keep you in His care day by day.##imported-begin##Dot Mills##imported-end##
