“ I am so sorry to learn of Ms. Patsy's passing away. She was so kind to my mom, Elsie, and to me when I came for visits at Ashlan. She would read bible lessons to my mom, who couldn't see the small print due to her being legally blind. Ms. Patsy would make sure my mom knew when the bible studies were and helped her to get to them. My mom referred to Patsy as "my Mary" because she reminded my mom of a lady she used to work with at the telephone company. Ms. Patsy did not mind being called "my Mary" either! She had such a beautiful soul! She will surely be missed by my mom and the others at Ashlan. I will be keeping Lori and the other family members in my prayers! I am sorry I never got to meet you, Lori. Your mom always spoke very highly of you. I hope all the good times you had with her will help you get through this sad time. God bless you all! Sincerely, Cheryl MacMillan
