“ What this world has lost - Heaven has gained - Pat now has her reward - She graced this world with her charm, grace, dignity, love for her family and friends, bot most importantly for her Lord and Savior. She now resides in His presence and is having the fellowship of her family members, friends and fellow Christians who went on before her. I can see them all worshiping and praising the Father at His Throne and I know without a doubt as she entered His Presence he said WELCOME HOME, MY CHILD, YOU HAVE BEEN A FAITHFUL SERVANT - ENTER INTO YOUR FOREVER HEAVENLY HOME - My thoughts and prayers are with all of you. Love you all and am here for you if you need anything. Know how sad we all are today but also how joyful we are in knowing we shall all meet together again one day!

Love to all of you,

“ Miss Pat was such an integral part of our group of scrapbookers. The stories she would share of her family was endless. The photos that she went through, whether it would be a bridal or baby shower, a wedding or Christmas, she always had a story to share. I was in awe of how she would tell her stories with such detail. Love you, Miss Pat. I'm going to miss you beyond any imagination. Hugs and big kisses. Faith

“ Ken, Mike, Lee Ann and family, my heart hurts and I'm so sad that Pat is no longer on this earth, but I also rejoice that she's walking streets of gold and reunited with her sisters and others. She could absolute run circles around me. She helped everyone and took care of everyone in her path. What an amazing lady! What a legacy she is leaving behind. I love you all and will greatly miss her.
