“ Paul came every year to Greer Christian Learning Center to set up a date for the Gideon’s to pass out Bibles to our students. He asked me several times to share with his Sunday School class about what God was doing in the lives of our students. He had a true heart for others. He enjoyed serving in places where he could see God working to change the lives of hurting people. He was a selfless person which is rare to find in our world today. His quiet spirit will be missed.

“ Praying for the family. I’m so grateful that I shared time with Paul at Sunday School and also at NHC while Bunchy and I were there. He truly was a fine man and such an inspiration to us. Gentle, sweet servant, with his Bible always open, and oftentimes quietly praying. Heaven gained an Angel. My sympathy. Sandy Godfrey
