

Paul C. Buohl

June 4, 1924 - April 14, 2019

Paul Christian Buohl, 94, passed away April 14, 2019.

A native of Camden, New Jersey, son of the late Paul Martin Buohl and Elizabeth Weidman Buohl, he was a retired employee of the Public Service Electric and Gas Company of New Jersey, and of the Methodist Faith. While serving in the US Army Air Corps during WWII, he fought with honor in the CBI/Pacific Theater, helped restore peace and world order, returned home; and got back to work, raised a family with his wife, sent their three girls to college and provided memory-rich, joyous childhoods. Paul was a sixty year member of the Merchantville, NJ Lodge A.F.M. and was a 32nd Degree member of the Collingswood, NJ Scottish Rite.

Surviving are his wife, Helen Edith Bakley Buohl of Greer; three daughters, Elizabeth Rakes (James) of Lexington, SC, Judith Harris (Chrys) of Greer and Gail Holmes (Richard) of Huntingdon Valley, PA; one sister, Anna M. Gerber; three grandchildren, David Rakes, Heather Abbott (Stephen), and William A. Harris; and one great-grandson, Dawson Rakes.

He was also predeceased by one sister, Arlene Rixon.

Memorial services will be private.

The family is at their respective homes.

“RIP Paul Buohl...an American hero.”

Online condolences may be made at www.thewoodmortuary.com.

Tribute Wall

JJ

“ *Helen and Elizabeth, Judy and Gail,
Paul has indeed a hero. He raised a beautiful family and lived a full life. When Gail and I became friends, Jim and Kass (my parents) became friends with Helen and Paul. The four of them made a fun group of adventurers.
I am glad you all have the memories in your hearts to keep Paul near and dear to you.*

So sorry for you loss, my deepest sympathies.

Jim Jamieson

Cohoes, NY

James Jamieson - April 15, 2019 at 07:10 PM