

Paul Dewey

August 14, 1961 - September 16, 2024

Paul Frederick Dewey, 63, passed away September 16, 2024.

A native of Miami, Florida, son of the late William F. and Irene Rabut Dewey, he was a faithful employee of Publix for 40 years.

Paul gave his life to the Lord in his early 20s while attending First Baptist Church of Westwood Lake and was Baptized as a believer by the late Pastor Marvin Gochenour. His family looks forward to seeing him again one day in heaven.

Paul deeply loved the people in his life. He was authentic and genuine in every area. Bear hugs and words of encouragement were his specialty. One of Paul's favorite things was to spend quality time with his family. In his free time, he enjoyed going to the beach and going fishing.

Paul could be remembered for his love of sports. He was a huge Miami Dolphins, Heat, and Hurricanes fan. He hardly ever missed watching a game. If he did, he was sure to record the game and watch it when he got home. On hot days, Paul took joy in being by his pool and grilling dinner for his family. He was an excellent cook and provider for his family. Paul was quick to drop everything he was doing to be there for the people he loved.

Paul was a supporter of local restaurants. He relished the opportunity to try new places while always returning to his favorites.

Surviving are two sons, Samuel Dewey of Taylors and Matthew Dewey (Michaela) of Greer and two sisters, Marsha M. Dewey of Port Saint Lucie, Florida and Laura J. Dewey of Lenoir, North Carolina.

Funeral services will be held 4:00 pm Thursday, September 19, 2024, at The Wood Mortuary conducted by Pastor Cory Horton.

Visitation will be held 2:30-3:45 pm Thursday, September 19, 2024, at The Wood Mortuary.

The family is at the home of his son and daughter-in-law, Matthew and Michaela Dewey.

“ Kind, amiable and good natured is how we remember Paul. With his loving heart, caring kindness and laughter, he made the world a better place . . . He once gave us a beautiful crystal Christmas ornament and every year, we take it out and remember Paul. May his memory of love and friendship be a blessing to all. See you in heaven, Paul.
