“ Our memories of Paul include the sharing of this shed and his workshop. Also he was very proud of his barbershop chair. His love of people and for life showed in his smile, kindness and his great big bear hug. But...his love for Dagny was beautiful and unforgettable. Paul was a special person and one of a kind. We will miss you, Paul. We love you❤️ Sue & Dean

One morning dad called me while in the hospital for his heart attack. His window was a beautiful view of trees changing colors and a hiking path for the hospital employees. He said he had been awake when the sun came up. He said he was talking to Jesus, no matter what they were doing for his heart he wasn't worried. He had complete Peace. It was so sweet as he talked about his Lord and Savior. It was beautiful hearing him talk Praising Jesus. His daughter-in-law, Paula Eill
