“ Precious Jordan Family,
You are in our thought and prayers during the passing of Papa Jordan. He was such a compassionate person each time I saw him. He and Mama Jordan have cared for many throughout their years and have made a lasting mark on many lives. This whole family is special to me . Many memories of child care for our boys and grandchildren, plus memories of me getting to teach members of this precious family.Special people and special memories will never be forgotten.
Since Doug is still in rehab for his lung cancer, we will be unable to attend the funeral, but know our thought and prayers are there with you all.
Love,
Doug and Jewell Fowler

My deepest sympathy to Becky and the whole family. I remember being at the day care, playing and going to see Grandma at your house. Paul reminded me of Grandpa. He was a kind man, filled the room with his presence, always pleasant and a true southern gentleman. Praying for all of you at this difficult time.

Becky, Bonnie, Paul, Jr. and Phil, and the rest of the Jordan family. We are so sorry to hear of the passing of Paul. It brings back lots of memories of me going to work for Hugh, Martha and Frank while I was still in high school. They were a big part of the work ethic I have now. And so many memories of Kevin and Jessica being taken care of so well at Buckaroo! We have been part of each other's lives for so long, and I know you will miss your Patriarch very much. Love, Catherine & Larry Hamrick.
