“ Although I haven't seen Paulette in years, I've kept up with her through our mutual friend. I know she struggled but always stayed strong and faithful. She was a fun loving and very sweet friend who will be missed by all who knew her. May God be with all of you during this journey of life without her.

“ Paulette was my cousin but more like my sister. She was two years older than I, therefore, she has always been in my life and always there for me. She never forgot a birthday or special event and anytime I visited, she always had a gift for me. She was the most giving lady I have ever known. I can't imagine my life without her but I can continue living because I know and I have the confidence that I will see her again.
Enjoy Heaven, Potti ...I will always love you.

You were a wonderful friend to Mom and more of a sister than cousin. Thank you for always coming by just to brighten her day.
