“ Reggie, Janet, and Stephen and to The Waddell families. I'm so terribly sorry to hear about your mother's passing. She was so sweet, kind hearted and sincere. I always loved to chat with her and those little talks and sharing a smile will be greatly missed. Keep your faith in God and feel his love and presence during this difficult time. Will be praying for you.

Love,

“ I remember Aunt Polly and Uncle JB when the family gathered at Grandpa's for a big dinner. A lot of Christmases we shared around that big family kitchen table. Guys, your mom was always sweet and caring. Later we missed being close as life takes us in separate direction. We did get to visit later and catch up. We'll be praying for all of you. Take care family. Aunt Polly loved you all very much.
