“ Philip and I were great friends in later part of high school. We did not go to the same school. I met him when he worked at Belks. He was such a great help to me there and I knew I wanted to befriend him. I remember saying good bye to him once when he went to California to go to GIA for gems. He came back to SC and moved to Ragsdale. His earlier car crash weighed heavily on him. When he passed I could not make it to his funeral. I have regretted that to this day. God’s Love and peace to you my friend. May his light shine upon you the way yours shined on me.
