“ Zak, Karter and Derek, the Wylie Phillips family are so sorry for your loss. The whole Grant family is in our prayers. I was not aware of the "Wolfman" singing fame until a few months back after listening to a few I tunes and enjoyed them. Our thoughts will be with you all as you go thru this trying time . All our love : Uncle Wylie and Aunt Carol and Family.

“ Wolfman was a "gentleman" to me, sang for me, especially at birthdays. He enjoyed singing gospel, but knew all kinds of music. He has a good band. He indicated he believed in the King, Jesus. Hopefully we'll sing together again up there.

“ I remember several summers when we were small kids hanging out with Phillip. I remember at family reunions he and I would sing a song or two, of course the number of songs he knew even then was amazing. I spent one summer in a full body cast. Phil would often visit me and one day he brought over boxes of comic books and gave me his entire collection. It sure made the time go by a lot easier.easier. That is the kind of person I knew him as. Always giving, always wanting to help if he could. These are all fond memories and I shall cherish them always. He left us too soon, but I am glad I got to spend some of his life with him. Love you Cuz. Rest easy man..
