

Phyllis D. Whitcomb

March 18, 1930 - February 3, 2024

Phyllis Dawn Ross Whitcomb, 93, of Greer, South Carolina, wife of the late Lloyd Arnold Whitcomb, formerly of Corry, Pennsylvania, passed away February 3, 2024.

A native of Corry, Pennsylvania, daughter of the late Cecil Elmo and Anna Madison Ross, she was a homemaker and attended Community Baptist Church of Greer, South Carolina.

Surviving are two daughters, Terrie Oates (Richard) of Linesville, Pennsylvania and Deborah Brush (Gordon) of Simpsonville, South Carolina; one son, David J. Whitcomb (Patty) of Taylors, South Carolina; one brother, Jack Ross (Jane) of Camrose, Alberta, Canada; two sisters, Jan Chesebro of Rochester, New York and Carolyn Showers (Merle) of Buffalo, New York; eleven grandchildren; and numerous great-grandchildren.

She was also predeceased by two brothers, Clifford Ross and Richard Ross; three sisters, Jean Van Gildren, Kay Allen, and Doris Adams.

Funeral services and burial will be held in Pennsylvania. Details will be announced by The Wood Mortuary.

The family is at their respective homes.

Online condolences may be made at www.thewoodmortuary.com.

Tribute Wall

DK

“ To the family of Phyllis Dawn Ross Whitcomb, I am so sorry for your loss. I personally didn't know Phyllis but I have heard my Daddy talk highly about Clifford, Jack, and Richard. My Daddy was Herman William Ross. Daddy passed away in 2007. I'll keep your family in my prayers.

Darlene Key - February 07, 2024 at 06:42 AM