“ I loved Polly. I can still remember the 8th grade is parties in your basement. I think your mother had more fun than anybody. She always accused me of being a "trouble maker".

“ Your mother came to see Carey's mom and dad In the hospital after their heart surgeries and we sat together--- she was telling me of some others from First Baptist having been or scheduled to have some major surgeries -- and then she said " they are all at First Baptist ???! -- and she said " - I think I'm going to change churches - - she had a great sense of humor before she got sick. We were so sorry to hear of Polly's passing and want you to know we are thinking of you and all the family --- prayers for all and much love, Carey and Joan
